The Crown Cork & Seal Campus ("Crown") represents a once-in-a-generation opportunity to participate in the activation of a landmark 16.8-acre adaptive reuse creative campus in the heart of Southeast Baltimore. The vision for Crown is a mixed-use, people-centered district anchored by makers, creators, and mission-driven enterprises — a place where industrial heritage meets contemporary urban culture. The development team seeks tenants, end-users, and buyers who share a commitment to community wealth-building and placemaking, including: artist studios, galleries, and cultural nonprofits; light industrial and craft manufacturing operators; creative office and co-working tenants; food and beverage entrepreneurs and market operators; workforce training and educational institutions; community health and social service providers.
